Hudhayfah's first day of kindergarten was today. His teacher, Brother Hamza is very nice. They played with play-doe, they painted and they learned three letters of the alphabet: s, m, and the letter d. Hudhayfah had so much fun, he was sure he was going to like kindergarten.

Brother Hamza taught them lots of other new things too and he took them outside to play. He talked a lot about Allah and said Insha'Allah often.

Hudhayfah's family says this word a lot at home. Hudhayfah started to wonder, who is Allah?

When Hudhayfah was getting ready for bed that night, he asked his mom. "Mama, who is Allah?" His mother sat on the edge of his bed and tucked his covers around him. "Well", she said, "Who is Allah? That's a very good question Hudhayfah. Allah is the One who made everything. He made the trees, the bees and He made your knees." She tickled his knees and he giggled and curled up into a ball.

Who is Allah?

“Allah made the clouds, He made the sky and the rain. He made some things different and He made some things the same. Allah made the wind and Allah made the snow. He made some things high and He made some things low. Allah made everything.”

“Allah is the Creator, He is Al-Khaliq. Everything is created but Allah is not created. Allah created your words and He created your thoughts. Allah created every boy, every girl, every woman and every man. Nothing about Allah is created, not His Speech, not His Hands, and not the Quran.”
